Orbital Wills

Terms of Service

1. About our service

Orbital Wills provides online will-writing and document preparation services based on information you supply.

We are not a law firm and do not provide legal advice unless expressly stated.

---

2. Eligibility

You must:

- Be at least 18 years old
- Be of sound mind
- Be acting voluntarily

By using our services, you confirm this is the case.

---

3. Accuracy of information

You are responsible for ensuring all information you provide is accurate and complete.

We prepare documents based solely on the information you submit.

---

4. Nature of the service

Our service includes:

- Guided online questionnaires
- Document preparation
- Optional add-on services where available

We do not:

- Verify personal circumstances
- Provide estate planning or tax advice
- Assess capacity beyond your declarations

---

5. Review services (if applicable)

Where an optional professional review is offered, it is limited to document review only and does not create a solicitor-client relationship.

6. Execution of your will

Your will becomes legally valid only when correctly signed and witnessed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

We are not responsible for improper execution.

---

7. Fees and refunds

Fees are clearly displayed at checkout.

Refunds may be offered at our discretion where services have not been completed.

---

8. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Orbital Wills is not liable for:

- Losses arising from inaccurate information provided by you
- Failure to execute the will correctly
- Use of the document without professional advice where appropriate

---

9. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales.
